

Rohan has been working as a 'people architect' for over 15 years. Seeing people exceed potential & possibility and performance. Understanding and executing the key fundamentals in life in order to grow to your maximum potential and invest yourself in the life of others. That sums up Rohan. Rohan is able to engage and motivate audiences of all ages to take action for change. His wit, wisdom and insight keep audiences engaged and challenged to make the changes that attract significance, abundance and influence.

Rohan is able to equip you to become the person who has the capacity to recognise and accept opportunity, to be more than you have and to begin to fulfill your purpose and destiny. Based on the values of human potential, worth, dignity, the power of a personal vision combined with the importance of personal growth Rohan skillfully, humorously and insightfully guides his audiences along a journey that increase the willingness to change and deposits the motivation and the skill to be able to make it last.

Rohan has been a Thought Leaders Mentor since 2008. It is a community of clever people committed to being commercially smart. To create, refine and develop Intellectual Property to make the planet a better place. Specifically Rohan does this through leading an exception local Church Melbourne Australia. He has a sensational team of people around him, an army or volunteers with him, an amazing community beside him and spare room for many more to participate. Rohan also runs a commercial Thought Leaders practice, specialising in People Architecture. This primarily outworks itself in the market place through keynote speaking, Executive Coaching and other forms of equipping & training.

In his Thought Leadership practice Rohan is obsessed by people recognising, developing & maximising their potential. Rohan represents Thought Leadership on "Speakership" and "Mode Delivery - Diversify Delivery & Multiply Income"

Newtons Second Law state "Everything continues at a state of rest unless acted on by an external force." Rohan IS that external force, leverage your leadership, increasing your influence, sharpening your skills. As a result of working with Rohan you will be more focused, clearer & engaged with your personal growth, communication skills and flexibility in influencing your sphere of influence. Join Rohan as you develop into the journey of seeing how people with a message can actually

Rohan has been married to Megan since 1997 and is overwhelmingly in love with her, when not inspiring people to live to their potential he loves the Missions, Aid and development work he does in Asia, investing in property, the stories movies tell, wakeboarding,, Road & Mountain bike riding, Golf, fascinating books, and great coffee. In February 2010 they welcomed their daughter Zarriah Grace (Zarriah means princess of God) to the world and delight in the privilege of being parents.

